MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE

Western New York has been extremely hard hit by the mortgage foreclosure crisis. Many homeowners are victims of bad loans while others, after falling behind due to temporary pay cuts, were caught up in overwhelming fees and penalties.

In order to ensure that homes are not lost unjustly, New York State instituted mandatory settlement conferences.

Homeowners can now obtain loan modifications under judicial review through a process that requires lenders to negotiate in good faith.

We represent homeowners facing foreclosure to pursue a number of applicable loss mitigation options, including:

- Loan modifications
- Forbearance plans
- Housing Counseling
- Negotiations
- Referrals to social services agencies

CONSUMER PROTECTION

If you have experienced a financially catastrophic life event, we might be able to assist you with the following:

- Chapter 7 bankruptcy
- Requesting and reviewing credit reports
- Fair Credit Reporting Act
- Fair Debt Collection Practices Act
- Challenging identity theft

Financial hardship packages are prepared with the assistance of certified housing counseling agencies.

This group defends mortgage foreclosures throughout Western New York. As part of the project, the Legal Aid Bureau primarily covers cases in Erie and Niagara Counties.
